JOHN JAMES

Representing the 10th District of Michigan

Dear Ms. morrison,

Thank you for contacting my office. I appreciate you sharing your views on the judicial system.

As your elected representative, I appreciate your input and direct feedback as I shape my position on policies being debated in the United States Congress. It is vital that policy discussions in Congress are shaped by constituents of Michigan's 10th Congressional district - not the status quo.

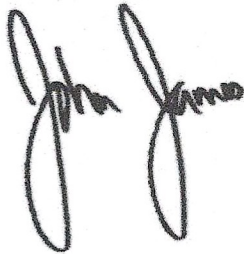

We have received your request and are monitoring this issue closely for further legislative action. I will be sure to keep your thoughts in mind should this issue come to the House floor for a vote.

I look forward to providing you with an update on America's legal system in the future. In the meantime, I kindly invite you to sign up for my newsletter below to stay updated on my work in Congress.

Thank you again for contacting me on this important issue. My office is always available to help and welcome your thoughts. Please visit my website at James.House.Gov or call us at (202) 225-4961 if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Rep. John James
Member of Congress
